DATA CONTROLLER / DATA PROCESSOR FOR GDPR PURPOSES

Under the European General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR"), we are the Data Controller of our direct Customers and website visitors Personal Data, and certain types of User's Personal Data.

Note that the processing of personal data which a customer provides to us for rendering our services (e.g., personal data relating to the customer's own clients), or which we collect on a customer's behalf in rendering our services, is not subject to this Privacy Policy to the extent the processing of such personal data is conducted only on behalf of the client and solely for the purpose of providing the services and according to the customers instruction. In such a case, the customer is generally the "controller" of the personal data and is responsible for providing notice about such processing.

If and when you use our Services as an end-user under other account owner (e.g. a healthcare provider or a clinic who provided you with our products as part of any treatment) we are the Processor of the Personal Data processed on behalf of such account owner, who is the Controller of the Personal Data. Similarly, when we process PHI on behalf of any of our customers who is deemed as a Covered Entity under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"), we act as a Business Associate.

COLLECTION OF NON-PERSONAL DATA

We may collect aggregated, non-personal and non-identifiable information which may be made available or gathered via your use of the Services and your interaction with us ("Non-Personal Data"). We are not aware of the identity of the individual from which the Non-Personal Data is collected.

Also, we may sometimes process and anonymize or aggregate personal data and identifiable information in a manner that shall create a new set of data that will be Non-Personal Data. Such a new data set can no longer be associated with any identified person and can be used by us for any purpose upon our sole discretion and subject to applicable law.

Non-Personal Data may be used by us without limitation and for any purpose, including for commercial, research, or statistical purposes, without further notice to you.

COLLECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

During your use of the Services and your interaction with us, we will collect individually identifiable information, namely information that identifies an individual or may with reasonable effort be used to identify an individual (“Personal Data” or “Personal Information” as defined under applicable law). This may include online identifiers, name, emails, etc., subject to applicable law.

If we combine Personal Data with Non-Personal Data, we will treat the combined data as Personal Data.

PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA – PURPOSES AND LAWFUL BASIS

COOKIES USAGE

Like many other websites, the Website and parts of our System use cookies to improve your experience while you navigate the Website. We may use various types of Cookies or SDKs in our App to collect and analyze data (together “Cookies”):

- Essential Cookies – which are necessary for the site to work properly (usually appears under our name/cookie tag);
- Functional Cookies – designated to save your settings on the site - your language preference or other view preferences (also, under our name/cookie tag);
- Session Cookies – used to support the Website's functionality – such Cookies are stored only temporarily during a browsing session and are deleted from your device when you close the browser.
- Targeting Cookies - these cookies are used to collect information from you to help us improve our products and services and serve you with targeted advertisements that we believe will be relevant to you (e.g., Google’s Cookies).
- Social networks Cookies - Social Plug-In Cookies (e.g., Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn Cookies, or pixels, etc.) enable sharing your usage information with your social network’s accounts.
- Analytics Cookies - give us aggregated and statistical information to improve the Website and System and further developing it e.g., Google analytics, Google Firebase Catalytic, etc.
- Third-party services used by us – for example, an external service supporting our career and recruiting options through the Website (e.g., Comet or Workday), or an external service which allows us to screen short videos on our Website (e.g., YouTube or Vimeo).

Please note that the data collected by the use of Cookies may be linked to and combined with any other data, including Personal Data.

Also note, that Cookie’s data is usually collected through third-party services, like Google, Facebook, etc. In those cases, your Personal Data might be transferred to those third parties, which might use it, as a “joint controller” of the data, meaning that the data is also “owned” and processed by them under their terms and conditions. Under those terms and conditions and the direct accounts or subscriptions you have with those third parties, your Personal Data might be linked to other data collected by the relevant third party and processed in its systems, for its purposes, and under its management. For example, suppose you have a Facebook account, the Personal Data collected through Facebook’s Cookies in Our Website might be linked to other data Facebook collects and might be used by Facebook per the independent agreements between you and Facebook.

SHARING DATA WITH THIRD PARTIES

We do not share any Personal Data collected from you with third parties or any of our partners except in the following events:

- Sharing of Data with a relevant Healthcare provider: As explained before, and as per your authorization, we will share your usage and treatment data with your healthcare provider to allow him to optimize your treatment and usage of our Services properly;
- Legal Requirement: We will share your information in this situation only if we are required to do so to comply with any applicable law, regulation, legal process, or governmental request (e.g., to comply with a court injunction, comply with tax authorities, etc.);
- Policy Enforcement: We will share your information, solely to the extent needed to (i) enforce our policies and agreements; or (ii) to investigate any potential violations thereof, including without limitations, detect, prevent, or take action regarding illegal activities or other wrongdoings, suspected fraud or security issues;
- Company's Rights: We will share your information to establish or exercise our rights, to prevent harm to our rights, property, or safety, and to defend ourselves against legal claims when necessary, subject to applicable law;
- Third Party Rights: We will share your information, solely to the extent needed to prevent harm to the rights of our users, yourself, or any third party's rights, property, or safety;
- Business Purpose: we may disclose your personal information to a third party for a business purpose, as detailed above.
- Service Providers: we share your information with third parties that perform services on our behalf (e.g., customer service, tracking, servers, service functionality, marketing, and support, etc.) these third parties may be located in different jurisdictions.
- Corporate Transaction: we may share your information in the event of a corporate transaction (e.g., sale of a substantial part of our business, merger, consolidation or asset sale). In the event of the above, our affiliated companies or acquiring company will assume the rights and obligations as described in this Privacy Policy;
- Authorized Disclosures: we may disclose your information to third parties when you consent to a particular disclosure. Please note that once we share your information with another company, that information becomes subject to the other company's privacy practices.

YOUR DATA SUBJECTS' RIGHTS UNDER PRIVACY PROTECTION LAWS

Under applicable privacy laws, individuals have certain rights to apply to us to provide information or make amendments to how we process data relating to them. Those rights might include:

- right to access your Personal Data - you can ask us to confirm whether or not we have and use your Personal Data, and if so, you can ask for a copy of your data;
- right to correct your Personal Data - you can ask us to correct any of your Personal Data that is incorrect, after verifying the accuracy of the data first;
- right to erase your Personal Data - you can ask us to erase your Personal Data if you think we no longer need to use it for the purpose we collected it from you. You can also ask for such erasure in any case in which the process of your data was based on your consent, or where we have used it unlawfully, or where we are subject to a legal obligation to erase your Personal Data. any request for such erasure will be subject to our obligations under the law (e.g., our obligation to keep some records for tax or customs purposes);
- right to restrict our use in your Personal Data - you can ask us to restrict our use of your Personal Data in certain circumstances;
- right to object to how we use your Personal Data - you can object to any use of your Personal Data which we have justified by our legitimate interest if you believe your fundamental rights and freedoms to data protection outweigh our legitimate interest in using the information;
- you can always require us to refrain from using your data for direct marketing purposes;
- you can ask us to transfer your information to another organization or provide you with a copy of your Personal Data (Portability Right);

We may not always be able to do what you have asked. Also, not all those rights apply in every jurisdiction. Yet, we encourage you to contact us with any such request, and we will be happy to assist you.

You have the right to lodge a complaint at any time before the relevant supervisory authority for data protection issues. However, we will appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach the authorities, so please feel free to contact us in the first instance.

DATA RETENTION

Unless you instruct us otherwise and subject to applicable laws, we retain the information we collect for as long as needed to provide our services and to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes and enforce our agreements if applicable. Basically, and as a minimum, that means that your data will be retained as long as you have an Account in our systems and use our Services.

Also, and after the termination of your Account, we may keep some of your Personal Data as a user of our Services for more extended periods for protecting our legal interests or under any safety or other legal requirements. For example, under EU legislation relating to Medical Devices (Regulation (EU) 2017/745) we must retain some data relating to our Services for a period of 10 years after the last placing of a product in the EU market.

As for Cookies data and technical marketing data, usually the data will be retained in an identified manner for periods of 14-36 months, subject to the relevant system. However, note that as explained before, once you delete the Cookies from your computer or otherwise restrict the use of cookies, we will have no linkage between your identity and your Cookies data (yet, the third-party provider may have such data relating to you, under the separate terms between you and any such third party, e.g., Facebook's terms of use as a user of Facebook).

Recruitment data will be retained up to 7 years after the last recruitment activity, for allowing to protect ourselves from any potential legal suit, in accordance with Israel's statute of limitations.

Please note that where we act as a Processor on behalf of an account owner, the retention periods are under the sole discretion of the account owner, as the Data Controller.

SECURITY

We use physical, technical, and administrative security measures for the services that we believe comply with applicable laws and industry standards to prevent your information from being accessed without the proper authorization, improperly used or disclosed, unlawfully destructed or accidentally lost.

However, unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet and online data processing cannot be 100% secure. As such, although we will do our best to protect your Personal Data, we cannot guarantee the security of data transmitted via the Website, App and any transmission of your data shall be done at your own risk.

DATA PROCESSING LOCATION

We may store or process your Personal Data in a variety of countries, including the United States.

Any transfer of data that originates in the European Union ("EU") to a country outside of the European Economic Area (EEA), shall be made in compliance with the provisions of chapter 5 of the GDPR, e.g.:

- transfer to a country that is recognized as providing an adequate level of legal protection;
- transfer under a proper agreement containing the Standard Contractual Clauses published and authorized by the relevant EU authorities;
- where we can be satisfied that alternative arrangements are in place to protect your privacy rights through the use of any other mechanism under the GDPR.

It is important to note that we are headquartered in Israel, a country that the European Data Protection Board considers offering an adequate level of Personal Data protection regulation.

Suppose you are a resident of a jurisdiction where the transferring of your Personal Data requires your consent. In that case, your consent to this Privacy Policy includes your express consent for such transfer of your data.

LINKS TO OTHER SITES

Our Website may include links to third-party websites, plug-ins, and applications. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites and are not responsible for their privacy statements. When you leave our Website, we encourage you to read the privacy notice of every Website you visit.

CHILDREN
